At Huntington

To Oliver

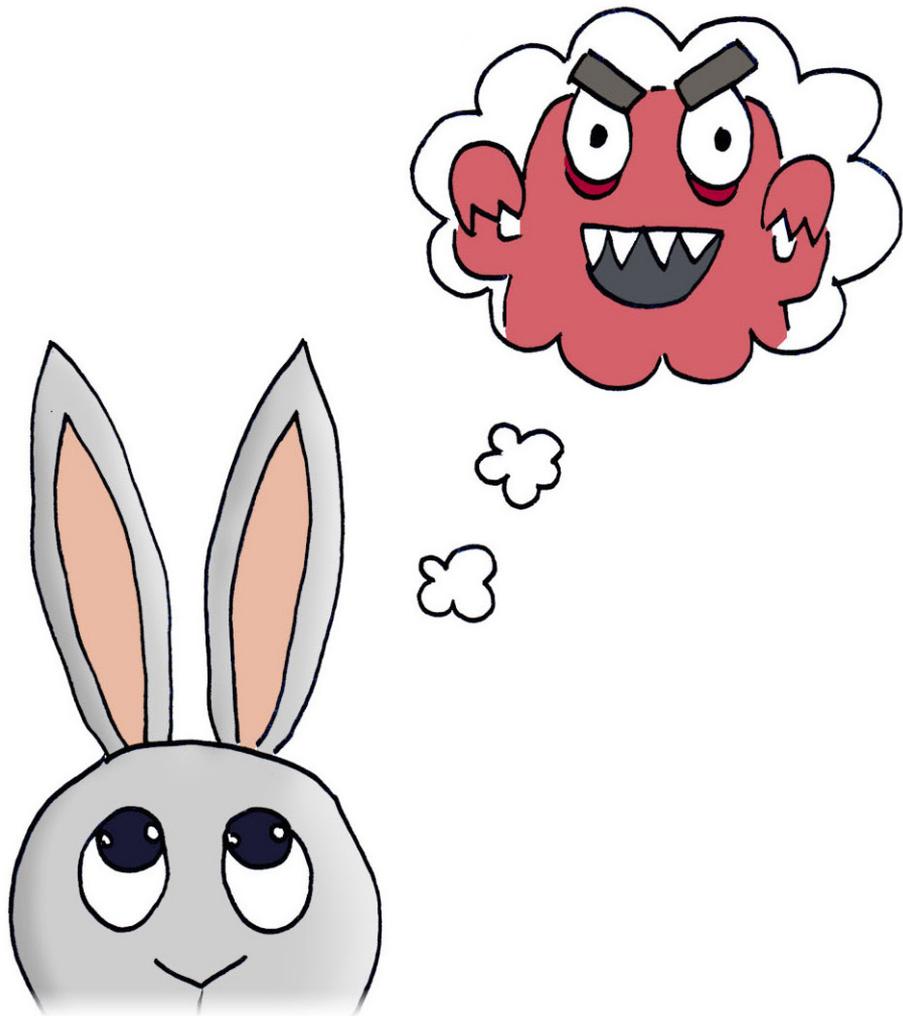

Have a great year!
Lots of love, Grandma x

Oliver had a fantastic summer holiday, but today was the first day back at Huntington, and Oliver was nervous.

Oliver started to get out of bed but didn't feel excited, Oliver felt wobbly and nervous.

In fact, the summer holidays had been so good, that Oliver couldn't remember what the Huntington teachers looked like! What if they were scary monsters?

"What if the teacher is a giant monster?" asked Oliver, "They might gobble me up!"
"Don't be so silly," said Mommy.

Oliver still felt nervous as they approached the Huntington school gates.

"Don't worry Oliver", said Mommy.

"You will have the best day and I can't wait to hear all about it when I pick you up."

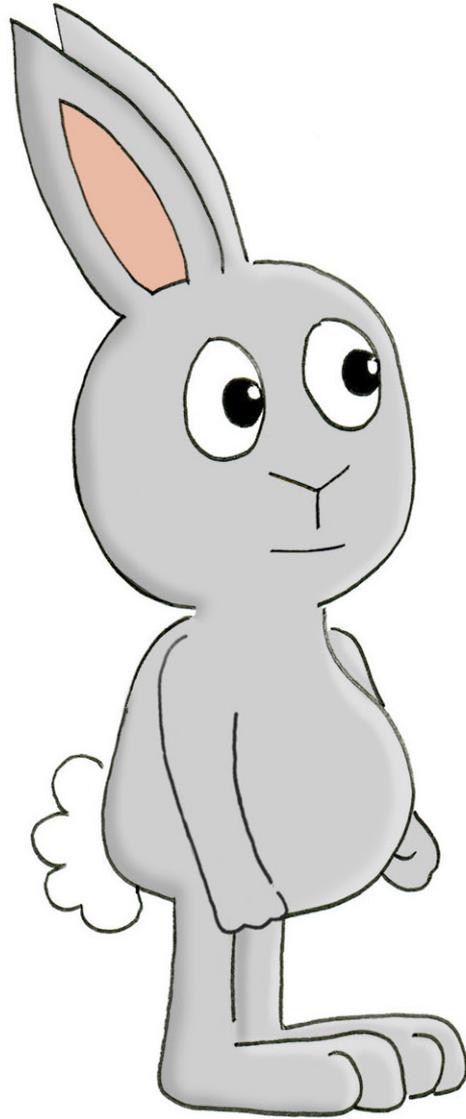

Oliver wasn't so sure.

Oliver followed the other children who were hanging up their coats.

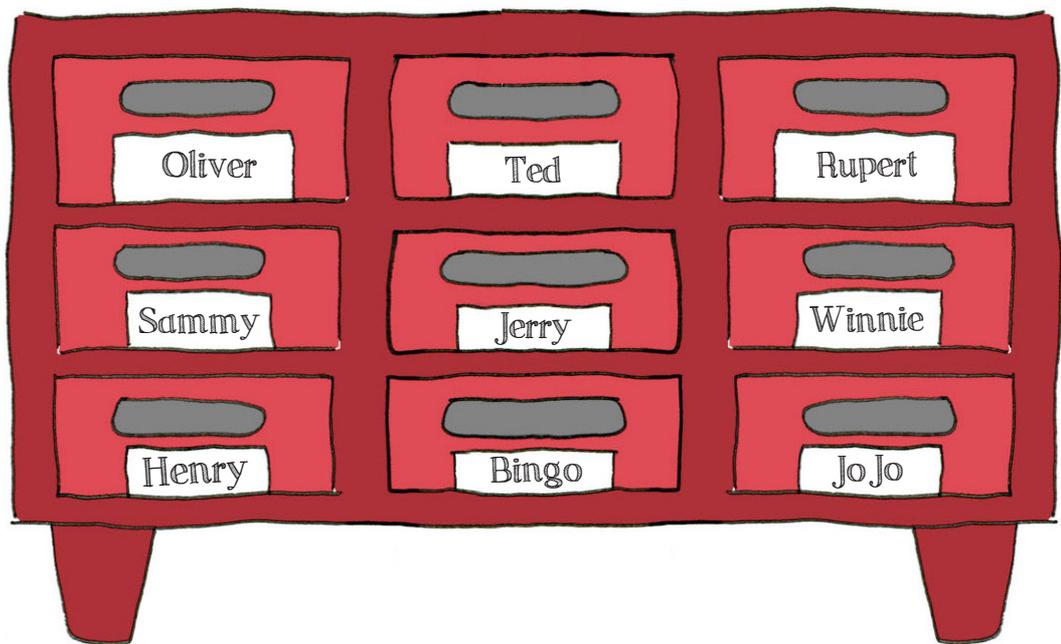

Oliver was excited to have a new coat hook, but still felt nervous.

Oliver walked into the classroom, and spotted the draws for the students.

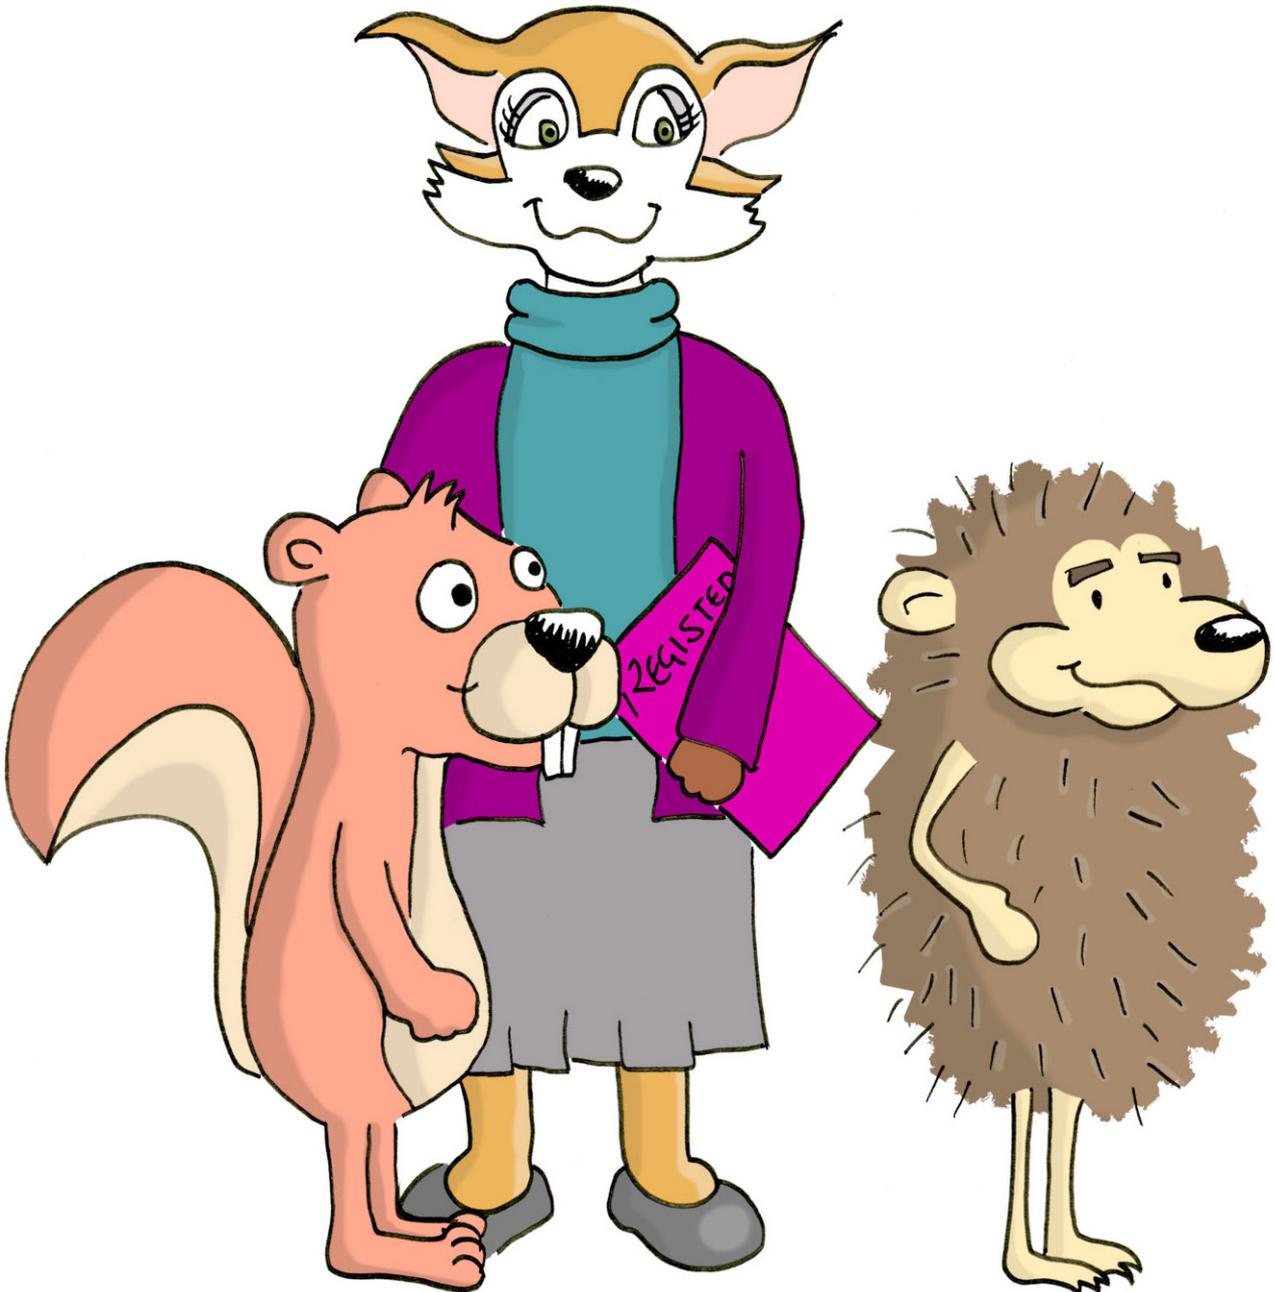

One draw had the name Oliver labelled on it!

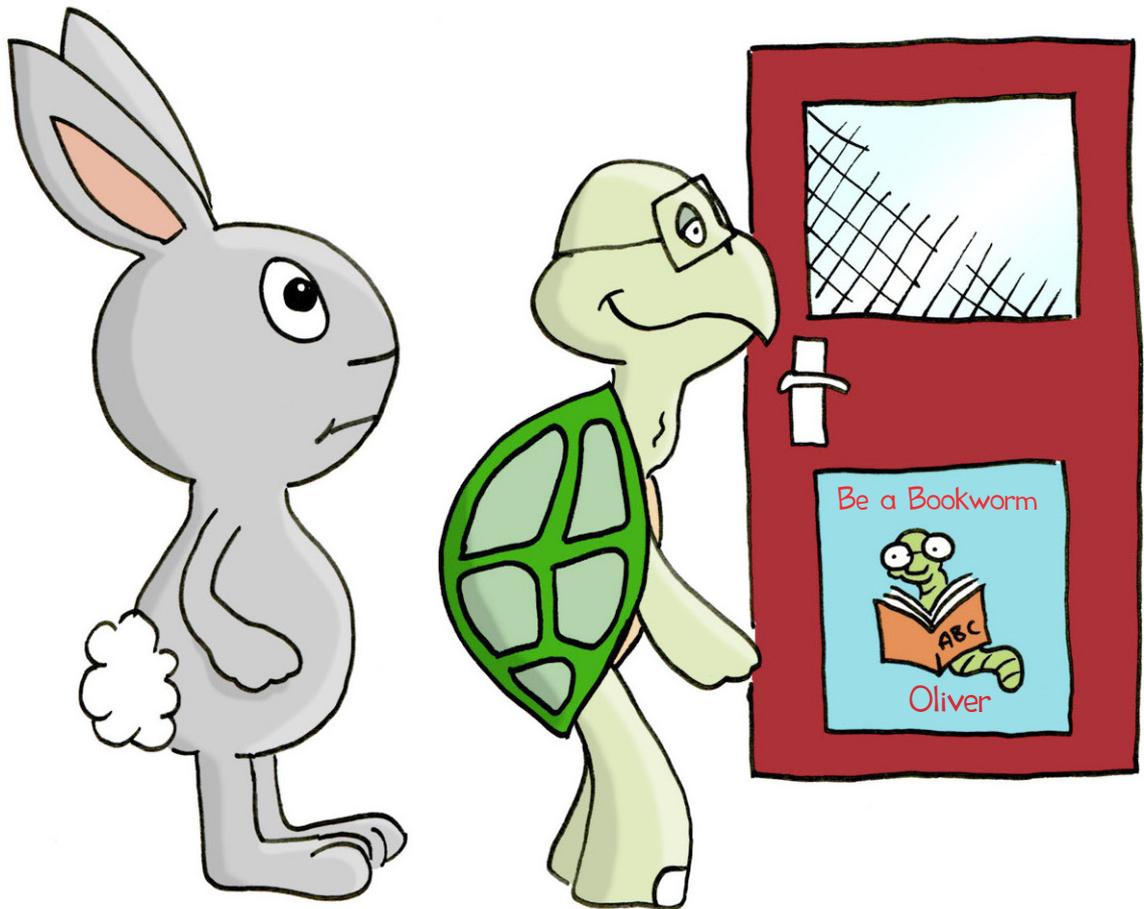

Oliver was excited to have a new draw, but still felt nervous.

Oliver finally got to meet the new teacher for the year - Miss Fox. Miss Fox took the register and asked everyone to walk to assembly.

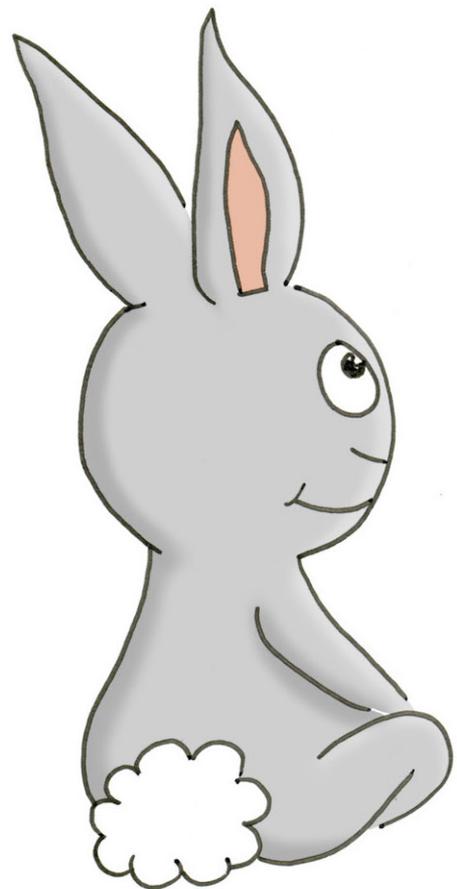

Miss Fox was really nice, and not a monster! Oliver didn't feel nervous anymore.

Oliver walked to assembly with the rest of the class.
Oliver was happy to see everyone.

Oliver didn't know what assembly was but Oliver felt strange again.

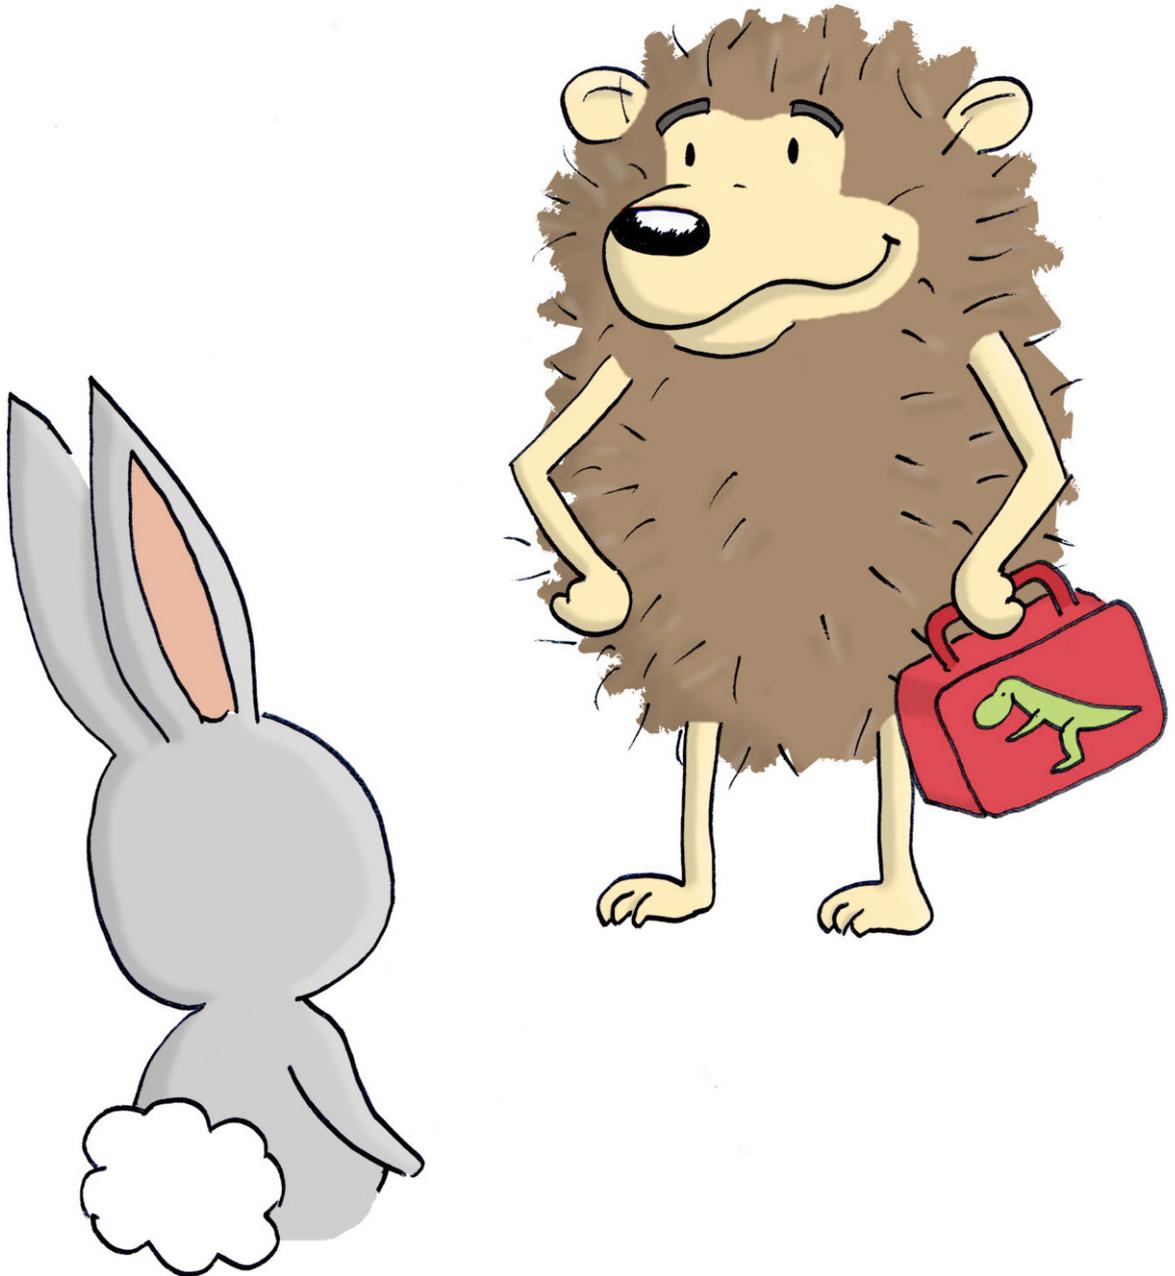

Oliver and the other children listened to the Huntington headteacher in assembly.

The headteacher welcomed everyone back to Huntington, and told them that there was a new student starting today, and to make them feel welcome.

Oliver was getting very hungry. Some children in the class had food in their lunch boxes, but today Oliver would be having school dinner, yum!
